Teaching Evaluations — Rodrigo Yañez Naudon

Department of Economics, University of Wisconsin–Madison
yaeznaudon@wisc.edu | website

Summary. Across 8 terms: Distinguished in 2, Excellent in 5, and Good in 1. Average rating 4.62 (department: 4.33).

University of Wisconsin–Madison — Teaching Assistant

Course	Term	Level	Avg.	Dept. avg.	Selected Comments
ECON 713: Economic Theory–Microeconomics Sequence	Spring 2025	PhD	4.69 Distinguished	4.36	"Rodrigo is very organized and excellent at helping students to learn the material. He is engaging and helps to build economic intuition around problem solving."
ECON 701: Microeconomics I	Fall 2024	Master's	4.44 Excellent	4.25	"Rodrigo has an incredible mastery of micro theory and was able to explain and clarify concepts at a deeper level than what I was able to studying on my own. I was very fortunate to have a TA like Rodrigo."
ECON 713: Economic Theory–Microeconomics Sequence	Spring 2024	PhD	4.39 Good	4.37	"Great TA! Appreciated how he explained the material and went through problems in discussion. The handouts were great, especially for studying for exams. Rodrigo was also friendly and tried to get to know his students, which I imagine is difficult with how many students were in the class."
ECON 701: Microeconomics I	Fall 2023	Master's	4.61 Excellent	4.30	"the best teacher I have met!"
ECON 713: Economic Theory–Microeconomics Sequence	Spring 2023	PhD	4.57 Excellent	4.36	"Rodrigo does a great job explaining the material. Even if it was sometimes difficult to follow in lecture, it often became clear when he presented it from a different angle. Overall a very well prepared and insightful instructor."
ECON 711: Economic Theory–Microeconomics Sequence	Fall 2022	PhD	5.00 Distinguished	4.34	"Rodrigo was a great TA. He was very helpful in office hours, great at teaching, and good demonstrating examples in discussion sections. Sometimes he went a little too fast through examples when he knew we had a lot of problems to get through. I would prefer for him to do fewer examples in more detail. However if I was ever confused I knew I could go to offie hours and he would explain in detail anything I need to know. He was accessible and kind and a delight to learn from!"
ECON 708: Microeconomics II	Spring 2022	Master's	4.67 Excellent	4.37	"Rodrigo is the best TA that I have ever met. Every time I had problems in the lecture notes or the homeworks he can perfectly answer my question. The Microeconomics course in this semester is really hard and is time-consuming to digest the knowledge. He really helps a lot."
ECON 701: Microeconomics I	Fall 2021	Master's	4.58 Excellent	4.30	"The discussion is really logical."

Ratings: Average student response to the question "Given the professor's role and the structure of this course, how would you evaluate your TA's performance?"
Scale: Responses are on a 5-point scale. Dept. avg. is the average rating across all TAs in the Economics Department that term.
Categories: The label under each rating is the department's performance category; from highest: Distinguished, Excellent, Good, Satisfactory.